LETTER from a friend at Washington says: Judge Springer received a hearty welcome on his visit to Washington. No one is missed more from the house than he. I happened to see him when he met Speaker Reed the day he arrived. They shook hands as heartily as brothers could, and the speaker seemed delighted to see him. I was with the judge when he met Mr. Hitt of Illinois. The judge saw Mr. Hitt first and he approached him and said 'Robert,' and Mr. Hitt was so surprised to see the judge that he had to look him over to be sure it was he and then remarked in a happy way: 'Why, Will Springer.' Everybody seems delighted to see both the judge and Mrs. Springer. They dined with Ex-Secretary of State John W.
